

SELKIRK ON 4TH

THE PROPERTY

Located in the heart of downtown Grand Forks, ND, Selkirk on 4th provides an engaging and creative environment that integrates commercial space with downtown housing and a community park space.

THE NAME

In 1872, Alexander Griggs, Selkirk steamboat captain staked claim to land on the Red River. That 9-acre piece of land would become downtown Grand Forks. Griggs has long been acknowledged as responsible for the growth of Grand Forks from a trading post to a town. His efforts earned him the title, "Father of Grand Forks."
